

Lafayette County Disclaimer Information

The County of Lafayette, its officers, employees and agents ("County") do not represent nor endorse the accuracy or reliability of any of the information or advertisements contained on, distributed through, or linked, downloaded or accessed from any of the services contained on this website ("Materials"), nor the quality of any products, information or other materials obtained by the user as a result of any advertisement, offer or other information contained in or in connection with the Materials ("products"). Users acknowledge that any reliance upon any Materials is at their own risk.

The service and materials are provided by the County on an "as is" basis and the County expressly disclaims any and all warranties, express or implied, including without limitation warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, with respect to any direct, indirect, incidental, punitive or consequential damages of any kind with respect to the service, the materials or the products.

The site provides links to information of interest to its users and, as such, there are many links to information that originates at sites not controlled or reviewed by the County. The County is not responsible for the accuracy, copyright compliance, legality or decency of such information. It is the responsibility of the user, or in the case of a minor, the parent/guardian, to restrict access to the Internet, to evaluate the value of any product or service described or offered therein.

Real estate and marriage license information is PUBLIC RECORD and may be accessed in the Lafayette County Recorder of Deeds office. We provide access to three public view stations, located in the Recorder's office, available to the public at no charge. For protection and maintenance, access to the internet website records is available by contract agreement only.